

Do you and your kids need some

HOMEWORK HELP?

Ask Dr. Math

<http://mathforum.org/dr.math/>

Browse questions and answers or ask a question of your own.

Guide to Grammar and Writing

<http://grammar.ccc.commnet.edu/grammar/>

Information on all areas of grammar and writing, from sentence parts to essays.

Fact Monster

<http://www.factmonster.com/>

Facts in every subject area.

AAA Math

<http://www.aaamath.com>

Instruction on math topics for K-8, with links to spelling, grammar, and geography as well.

APlus Math

<http://www.aplusmath.com>

Interactive math activities including flash cards, games and puzzles.

Ben's Guide to U.S. Government for Kids

<http://bensguide.gpo.gov/>

Historical and government information, including games, broken down by grade level.

Get Noodles

<http://www.getnoodles.com>

A downloadable program that test your child's knowledge and keeps brains active during computer time.

