In January 2003, after two terms as Governor of the State of Maine, Angus King hit the road. Packing his wife and children into a Newmar Dutch Star RV, he set out on a five-and-a-half-month journey to circumnavigate the United States. His new book Governor's Travels is the story of that adventure, describing the places they went and the people they met along the way. Join us for a glimpse into this journey and to purchase your own signed copy of the book!

APL to Host Family Literacy Nights

The Auburn Public Library's Children department in conjunction with the Auburn School Department will be hosting a series of monthly Family Literacy Nights as part of the "School Comes to You" grant received by the Auburn school department from the Barbra Bush Foundation. Families will come to the library for a simple meal, a story, and some simple literacy activities they can learn to use at home with their children. We are very happy to collaborate with the school department and work to help improve family literacy in our community.

For more information or eligibility information, contact Linda Leiva from the school department at 783-8526 ext. 354 or lleiva@auburnschl.edu
